

2011 RUTGERS-CAMDEN MEN'S SOCCER

Assistant Coach

High School: St. Augustine Prep

Major: Mathematics

Bill Pinto (2nd season)

College: Hofstra University, 2010

Bill Pinto added another successful chapter to his soccer career in 2010 when he helped Rutgers-Camden capture the ECAC Metro/Upstate championship during his first season as an assistant coach. Pinto returns for his second season at Rutgers-Camden this fall.

Pinto's coaching career comes on the heels of his outstanding collegiate soccer career at Hofstra University. As a senior midfielder in 2009, he started nine of his 16 games and collected one assist. Throughout his four-year career with the Pride, Pinto appeared in 57 games, started 21 and collected two assists.

An outstanding student as well, Pinto received the Colonial Athletic Association Commissioner's Academic Award four times.

Pinto graduated from Hofstra University in May 2010 with a degree in Mathematics.

A soccer letterman at St. Augustine College Prep in Richland, New Jersey, Pinto led the team in scoring as a junior to lead the Hermits to the Parochial A state championship. He earned All-State Second Team honors as a senior and added First Team All-Parochial and First Team All-Conference. He also was named the team MVP and was recognized on the Atlantic City Press First Team and the All-South Jersey Second Team during his senior season in 2004.

A President's Honor Roll student throughout his high school career, Pinto was a member of the National and Spanish Honor Society.

